

I am writing in support of LPFM, which has contributed widely to my available information about the goings-on of the world. Noncommercial radio, although difficult to find in Chicago, represents a vital aspect of democracy. I am often left with online news sources as my only alternative news option, and wider availability of LPFM would be greatly appreciated. Sincerely,

Anne Elizabeth Moore
Associate Publisher,
Punk Planet